After the rebel army surrendered he was statuned at Salisbury, N. C., and at this time
Ben was a dashing, handsome 6-foot Major of quality in the town was a family named Carr. The old gentleman had been a Major in the Confederate army, and at one time was chased ten miles through the Carolina sands by a Yankee sergeant. Both traveled at a double-quick, and in the race the Major wore his toenails down so that they dropped off after he was captured. Naturally this embittered the family against the Yanks, and Carr's three daughters swore never to speak to one. Major Lefevre was on the General's staff at this period, and one day General's staff at this period, and one day

PAITHFULNESS NOT FORGOTTEN. Young German Laborer Receives $22,000

That vessel was released on a bond for $3,000, and subsequently the Canadian Government intimated its willingness to give up the vessel on the payment of $2,000 and the expenses, while in the case of the Canadian vessels seized in Behring Sea in 1887, a number of them have been allowed to go to deave and in other cases when it was to decay, and in other cases when it was proposed to bond them, the amount of se-curity demanded was so far in excess of H. Kessel, a laborer in the employ of the Birmingham Iron , Foundry, received a check on Sunday for $22,000, left him by his grandfather in Germany. It was a surprise to Kessel, who had not heard of the old gentleman's death. When he left Germany four curity demanded was so far in excess of their actual value that their owners refused to have anything to do with them. With regard to others it is learned that up to the present it has been impossible to secure a revaluation of the seized vessels.

Apart altogether from the recent seizure the conduct of Captain Shepard must of necessity engage the most serious attention of the home Government. In this case a vessel having a British register, and flying the British flag, is boarded on the high seas and forcibly searched. Under these circumstances it is surely due to British vessels, pursuing adegitimate calling, that the Imperial Government should, without further procrastination, take prompt and decisive measures to protect its commerce beyond tleman's death. When he left Germany four years ago, it was understood between him and his grandfather that the money was to be left to him if he should remain single and take care of his mother and sister as long as they lived, or until the sister was married.

Kessel came to New Haven and married a pretty German girl. He sent word to his grandfather, and supposed that he would be deprived of the promised inheritance. He was the more surprised, therefore, to get the check. He determined, however, to carry out part of his promise to his grandfather, and to-day he presented to his mother and sister $15,000. He will establish himself in business with what remains. He earned but $2 a day in the foundry.

M., August 6.—There were caudidates for delegates to the Constitutional Convention in all counties of New Mexico, but there was no straight Democratic ticket in the field in any of these. This course was advised by the Democratic managers on the plea of untair apportion-ment in some counties. There was a mixed ticket called the People's ticket. The vote to-day throughout the Territory was light.

The convention meets September 3 at OTTAWA, August 6.—The Minister of Customs was officially informed of the arrival of the Black Diamond at Victoria today. The Deputy Minister of Fisheries said to-day that he did not regret the seizure of these schooners, as he believed the seal fisheries should be protected from the wholesale slaughter and devastation to which they have for a long time past been subjected. He has no doubt that some joint arrangement will be arrived at between the maritime powers to protect the seal fisheries, which are now rapidly becoming exterminated.

A prominent official of the customs department said to-day: "We shall not take any action on the matter. What is there to do? The United States authorities only put aboard a, prize crew of one man on purpose to allow the Black Diamond to effect her escape. They wanted to make it a warning to other sealers, and, after doing this, it was the solution of the sealers, and, after doing this, it was the solution of the sealers and after doing this, it was the solution of the sealers and, after doing this, it was the solution of the sealers and, after doing this, it was the solution of the sealers and a strength of the sealers are the sealers and the sealers are the sealers and the sealers are the sealers and the sealers are the sealers and the sealers and the se OTTAWA, August 6.—The Minister of Customs was officially informed of the ar-rival of the Black Diamond at Victoria to-tribute. He says:

The effect of having such an exhibition would be to benefit the country at large immensely, as it would be a great attraction to draw foreigners from all sections of the world here with money to spend and witness what this country has accomplished in its centennial progress under a republican form of government. As an evidence of the result of this flow of foreigners to our shores, it would be well to make a comparison with what the Paris Exposition has done in attracting Americans this year. During the French Expositionithis country has had to suffer from the army of travel abroad to the tune of not less than a drain bordering upon from $150,000,000 to $175,000,000. If we can get this back in 1892, in the same way as it has been attracted abroad from us, then it would be but a fair reciprocity treaty.

BUFFALO, August 6 .- At the Niagara House, Niagara Falls, one evening recently Jacob Fetter, the clerk, having finished his labor for the day, sat down on a window-sill in the office and rested his head against a small iron box used as a cut-off of the incandescent light. THE FOREIGN GLASS TRADE

WASHINGTON, August 6 .- John B. Howes, commercial agent of the United States to Beichenberg, in a report to the State Department under date of April 15, calls attention to a depression of prices in the glass trade. Business has also decreased to an enormous extent. Exports to the United States for the quarter ended March 31, were 136,000 florins less than in the same quarter in 1886. Wages of workmen have been reduced since 1887, so that they earn only from one-fifth to one-half what they did, or 21 to 28 cents a day. Mr. Howe

Of course no man can live on 20 kreutsers (8 cents) a day, much less support a family, and the result is that there is much suffering among the glassworkers. Subscriptions have been taken up for the relief of the starving families, and in the last five weeks alone over 600 people have been assisted and over 8,000 gulden expended by the committee having the matter in charge. Cases of scurvy and "hun-ger typhus" are not infrequent, and add to the prevailing misery.

DELICATE AND DANGEROUS. The Most Sensitive Object in the World Explained, and the Danger it is in Made

'Touch the pupil of your eye and see if is hurts, " said one club man to another.
"Do you think I'm an idiot?" was the reply. "Don't you suppose I know it will hurt," [And yet the same man would not hesitate to verload and abuse his stomach, which is coated in precisely the same manner as his eye, and which is the most important, the most sensitive, the most delicate organ in the body. The mucous membrane lining of the stomach is like the mumore sensitive. And yet, upon the surface of the stomach live millions and millions of germs; indeed it furnishes the only great home for germs. These little animals live upon it, prev upon it onstantly, and cause pain. There is always danger and a solemn warning from pain in the stom-ach. Napoleon the Great never knew fear in battie, but was an abject coward when spasms selzed his stomsch. And why not? They mean sudden sickness, perhaps quick death. The slightest terror. Delay may be fatal! For 50 years there has been but one standard, one certain cure for all pains and sudden disor-ders of the stomach, and that is Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. It is a pure, a powerful, a perfect remedy. It is used in every cholera country on the globe. It is carried in every ship that sails. There is not a missionary station in the world where it cannot be found. Rev. B. H. Bodley. dissionary at Lucknow, India, says: "There is nothing like Perry Davis' Pain-Killer for Cholera dorsement of the medical profession in all choices countries, and it is a household remedy. It should be kept constantly on hand, for summer dangers are always sudden, and it is far better to prevent than to cure. Don't neglect an honestwarning.

ADVICE FOR ALL.

Sid and sorrowfully glance into the future many sick persons who suffer pain and who find an early grave through mistaken treatment. Do not forget that the proofs are here that my celebrated all-German remedies cannot be excelled. Thousands of patients have I met who said: "I was not a day without medicine and grew worse every day." They are correct. Where dangerous operations have been previously undertaken my remedy has cured in a short time. My remedies cure, in fact, most of the chronic diseases where no other medicine gives help. Daily sick persons come to me and complain that they have spent $50, $100. $1,000 among doctors, but were not 5 cents' worth better. When these doctors had received the money they left the city by moonlight. Thousands in Pittsburg and vicinity have been cured within a year by my wonderful romedies. Look at the following a few of those who were cured in as many weeks as they were years sick. Mr. H. Courad, chronic rheumatism, 2 years. Miss Weaver, epilepsy, 6 years.

If the disease is not to be recognized by any other evidence, then the urine is the best means of diagnosis; it shows what and where the trouble is. As soon as it leaves its normal straw color, you should not fail to use my celebrated remedies and be cured from the very root of the trouble.

representatives could not play good enough, and that was the great stumbling block. After this no excuse is needed, and this fact suggests the great necessity of better ball playing it Pittsburg is to be worthy the name of a League baseball town.

The endance amounted to 1,000 people and the weather was excellent. Everybody seemed to be in good bumor, and there seemed to be a general presentiment all around that the home club couldn't win. Whoever shared this antic ipation was comple-cly on the right side, be Buffinton pitched for the visitors and Staley was in the box for the home players. Both men pitched good; ball, but Buffinton had a shade the best of it. Staley certainly was not in his best form. Now and again he felt all right, and that's the time when he fooled those who faced him. Buffinton pitched a good and patient game. He was now and then a little wild, but he was ever ready to settle down, and

The visitors commenced the slaughter. Wood led off with a hit to right and was retired at second on the short hit of Hallman. Myers came up and cracked out the ball to left field for a lase and Hallman, who had alredy stolen second, scored. Thompson then sent out a good single to middle field and Myers scored. In the second inning Fogarty got his base on a muffed fiv by Rowe.

GENERAL BASEBALL NEWS OF THE DAY

The home ball club was again beater them. There is seldom any consoling features in defeat; at best defeat is only defeat and that means more or less inferiority.

Now and again an interesting and even unentertaining feature may be noted in de-feat, but this kind of features are rarritles of the history of the Pittsburg ball club. There are often excuses and good reasons for defeat but the true and only cause of vester day's beating was better playing on the part of the Philadelphias. It is not true sportsman-

In the second inning Fogarty got his base on a muffed fly by Rowe. ROWE'S BAD ERROR. He ought really to have caught the ball.

Farrar's sacrifice hit sent Fogarty to third and a passed ball sent Clements to first and Fogarty got home.

In the fifth inning, after Clements was out, Wood, Hallman and Myers each made a single. Myers' single enabled both Wood and Hallman to reach home. Thompson's life hit retired Myers at second base. Thompson stole second and got home on a two-bagger by Mulvey. All the three runs were earned. In the sixth inning Fogarty led off with a hit to middle. He stole second and a sacrifice and a clean hit got Fogarty home. The visitors were really sad that they had such poor quality to go against. The home players made their two first runs in the fourth inning. Rowe got a safe hit and struggled to get to third. A wild throw by Mulvey caused the "spill." Miller made a steal to second on a passed ball, and Beckley got first on a muffect throw by Farrar. Kuchne made a sacrifice hit and White flew out to Hallman. Dunlap then made a hit and Bockley was then put out at the plate. In the seventh inning the last run was acided to the list. After Dunlap and Staley were out Sunday hit for a good single, and a long single to middle enabled Sunday to score. The game was exceedingly interesting at points and McQuaid umpired well. Following is the score:

THE CROCKERIES' STATEMENT. They Say Some Strong Things About On The following letter explains itself: In answer to Manager Long's statement in SUNDAY'S DISPATCH, the Crockery City Baseball Club of East Liverpool, Ohio, wish to state that Fitzsimmons, the "Our Boys" right fielder started to unspire the game, and getting disgusted with the kicking of the "Our Boys" club quit, making the remark that they were dirty ball players and wished him to be the same. In all decisions that were objected to the "Crockeries" submitted to in order to save their patronage and have the game in shed, as the game at all points was in favor of the Crockery City team, and the object of the "Our Boys" club was to break up the game in a dispute in order to save defeat.

The conduct of four of the "Our Boys" was very ungentlemanly, to say the least, especially in the seventh inning when they went in front of the grand stand using profane language and proclaiming that they could both whip and defeat the Crockery City Baseball Club at any time, etc. We state the true facts in justice to our club.

Bowie's telegraphed statement that it must not be understood that Pimlico is a thing of the be understood that Pimlico is a thing of the past because of the omission of the fall meeting, it was pretty well accepted to-day in sporting circles that racing at Pimlico under the Maryland Jockey Club is ended forever, and that a postponement of definite action until May is simply putting off the inevitable.

The action came curiously soon after the news that Washington had split and one-half of the lay City club had purchased a new race track. There was no longer any chance of consolidation. Baltimore bookmakers say: "The death of the Maryland Jockey Club means nothing more to our business than possibly a weaker fight against us if ever the Legislature should meddle with us again."

The announcement is made to-day that plans for a new and more vigorous racing club are A CHARGE OF PIRACY forming. President Frank Brown, of the Maryland Agricultural Association, says that if the coming Exposition is a financial success there will be a race meeting under the auspices of the association at the old Pimlico track.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 BUFFALO, August 7 .- This afternoon the grand trotting carnival began its second week at the old driving park, now the International Fair Grounds. There was not as large an attendance as the management expected, even with a very attractive card, in which a stake of $5,000 was included. The crowd made up in enthusiasm what it lacked in size and the betting ring did a big business throughout. This famous course has been rebuilt, and though not as fast as

Cleveland is still one of the best in the No very fast time was made this afternoon, the trotters being especially slow. It was rather cool for the flyers and none of the fast classes have yet been reached. When the day closed only two events had been dis-posed of, but it took 12 heats equally divided to decide the issue. In the 2:30 trot the favorite, Reference, looked like a winner till Star Lily was cut loose just in time to snatch the victory from the gelding, who was not in his best form, Marksman Maid got a heat and a second and was then unfortunate in taking sick, so that she had to be drawn, losing third money. After a good deal of hard luck Hai Pointer managed to maintain his reputation as a game pacer by getting the necessary three heats. Geers, his driver, drove a waiting race, keeping behind for two heats. Some new records were made. Red Belle 2:17 and Minnie P 2:19, dropping their former marks by several second T. ment of their sport. The track was in Junior Champion stakes, the value of which is more than $50,000. Twelve starters came to the post. Burlington, St. Carlo, the Cyclone colt and King Hazem were scratched. Cayuga was the favorite at 2 to 1 against. The start was an excellent one. Devotee, Leighton and the Eccola colt were first off, but Ballarat quickly passed them and was soon in the lead a neck before Starlight. Ballarat remained in front until the quarter was reached. Then Clarendon came up and led Ballarat by a neck, followed by Starlight and Devotes. Clarendon continued to lead, and increased his advantage to two lengths before getting to the head of the stretch. At the last furlong post Protection came through from the ruck, followed by

First race, seven-eighths of a mile-Starters: Endurer, Bess. Niagara, Fitzroy, Vietrix. Bess won in 1:34%; Fitzroy second, Endurer third.

The youngsters did not parade by the grand stand before the race, and that was a great disappointment to the crowd. There were several irritating breakaways, but finally a good start was secured. Going up the back stretch Baliarat made the pace, Chesapeake at his saddle girths, Devotee and Protection close up. Chesapeake led into the homestretch, with Protection pushing him, and going steady as a clock. At the last furing post Protection was let out, and he immediately jumped into the lead and won with apparent case his title to "Junior Champion," He was two lengths before Chesapeake, second, Banquet third. Time, 1720½, Harnes, who rode Protection, won the race last year with Proctor Knott.

SARATOGA, N.Y., August 6.—Governor-Bowie says that the report relative to the future plans of the Pimileo Racing Association published this morning is in many points erroneous.

"The association," he says, "has not relinquished the lease of the grounds and has no intention of doing so. We omitted the fall meeting this year because it would clash with big meetings in the vicinity of New York, and the bookmakers would not leave these for the Pimlico or any other meeting, We have always given larger purses than the Saratoga and Western meetings, and have made money at every meeting except the last. The reports that Iry City is an injury to Pimlico are untrue. The fact is that each is a benefit to the other. It should not be understood by the omission of our fall meeting that Pimlico is a thing of the past."

Fillenger Called Down. The backer of Billy Corcoran put up a for-feit of $25 at this office last evening to match Corcoran to fight Nick Fillinger, of Lawrence. ville, for $100 to $250 a side. Corcoran desires to fight to a finish, Queensberry rules. He issues the challenge because of the excessive talk indulged in by Fillenger, and he hopes that Fillenger will "either put up or shut up." Corcoran's backer will be at this office to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock.
